Baby's Shoes.

They're very dainty little things,
With bow and buckle bright,
And fitted to dear little feet
So soft, and smooth and white;
And all the children eager rush
To tell the wondrous news,
"That our baby has short clothes
And pretty little shoes."

Why is it that my timid heart
Is full of anxious fears,
And all unconsciously my eyes
Glisten with blinding tears?
Is it, that up to this my babe
Lay on a loving breast,
To which he ever eager turned
For nourishment and rest?

But little shoes, ye bid me think
That from this very day
I send another pilgrim forth
Upon life's weary way,
Into the world of sin and care,
Its struggling and its strife,
Until with Job his soul may wish
It never had known life.

'Twas just two years ago I put
On little Kitty's feet
Such shoes as these with fond caress
And kisses warm and sweet.
Things just as fragile as these are
And not a bit more stout;
Yet she had joined the angels' band
Ere they were quite worn out.

Ah! many a mother's bitter tears
On little shoes are shed
Relics of household treasures gone,
Idols among the dead.
Whether this babe reach man's estate
Or soon his course be run,
I only ask for grace to say,
"Father, Thy will be done!"

STRANGE FREAK OF A LUNATIC.—A TERRIBLE RIDE ON A LOCOMOTIVE.—At 4 o'clock this morning a yard-master in the employ of the Illinois Central railroad at this place saw a man on an engine that had steam up standing on the track ready to go out. The yard-master accosted him and told him to get off the engine. The man replied by knocking down the yard-master, running the engine out on the main track, and starting northward at a terrific rate of speed. A brake-man and fireman were lying asleep on the engine when it started.—They awoke to find themselvs flying away with all the speed of the wind, and a stranger at the engine. On examination, they found him to be a drunken stonemason of this place, named Fitzpatrick, who has been raving with delirium tremens recently. The two men were at first appalled with terror. They appealed to the madman to stop, but he heeded them not, and drove the engine faster and faster. He sounded the whistle at Central City, the first station north, but did not for a moment decrease the frightful velocity of the engine. At the junction just above Central City the whistle shrieked again, and the engine sped like a cannon ball toward Sandoval. The situation was now becoming fearfully perilous, when the brakeman seized a piece of coal and hurled it at the desperate maniac. He then left the engine and turned upon the brakeman and fireman. One of them struck him with a sledge hammer, and after a struggle he was secured. The engine was speedily reversed and brought back to this city.—Centralia (Ill.) correspondence of the Chicago Times.

THIS SIDE UP.—We saw Jake nailing up a box the other day containing some articles which he intended sending by express. From the nature of the contents we knew it was essential that the box should not be inverted on the passage, so we ventured the suggestion to Jake to place the much abused "This side up, etc," conspicuously upon the cover. A few days after we saw Jake.

"Heard from your goods, Jake; did they get there safely?"

"Every one broke!" replied Jake sullenly; "lost the whole lot! Hang the Express Company!"

"Did you put on 'this side up,' as I told you?"

"Yes, I did; an' fur fear they shouldn't see it on the kiver I put it on the bottom, tew—confound 'em!"

MISTAKEN CONVERSIONS.—A correspondent furnishes the following instance of mistaken conversions in New York city:

A Repentant Dry Goods Merchant.—Among the recent conversions was that of Mr. ———, a large dry goods dealer. After his conversion he went to a neighboring minister and told him there were so many tricks in the trade, that he was convinced that no man could be honest and obtain a living by the sale of dry goods.

"Then," said the minister, "you intend to give up your business, and go into something else."

"Oh, no," replied the hopeful convert; "I shall attend only to the purchase of goods, and leave the selling to my clerks."

When the late excellent Dr. Clemboroff, of Brooklyn, New York, lay dying, his wife said to him, "Courage, my dear—it will soon be over." He quickly replied, "Courage is not the word now; the victory is won, and I lie waiting for the crown." And so he departed.

TO THE

TRAVELLING PUBLIC!

THE season having ended and my house at Beaufort having been closed, I again take pleasure in stating to my friends and the travelling public generally that I will open, on the 1st. of October next, the LAND FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, as Executor of Samuel W. Branch, deceased, will offer at public vendue, to the highest bidder, on the First Monday in November next, the tract of Land belonging to the estate of the said Samuel W. Branch, on which the said Samuel W. Branch resided at the time of his death.

The said tract of Land is situated in Halifax county, North Carolina, about two miles east of Enfield, which is the nearest Depot. It contains twelve hundred acres, about two thirds of which are cleared and in cultivation. One hundred acres of the cultivated lands are low grounds of the finest quality. The upland has inexhaustable supplies of marl, of easy access, and is as well adapted to the growth of cotton as any upland plantation in the State. There is a good Dwelling, Gin-house, Gin-house, Still-house and out-houses on the Land, an Apple Orchard, in good bearing, sufficient to make ten barrels Brandy, and altogether the plantation is one of the most desirable in the State.

At least three thousand dollars will be required in cash. A credit of one, two and three years will be allowed on the remainder of the purchase money, which must be unexceptionably secured by personal security, or the purchaser may pay all cash at his option. The title, which is indisputable, will be retained until the purchase money is paid. Persons who may desire to purchase can have an opportunity of riding over the plantation by calling at the dwelling. Possession will be given on the 1st of January next.

BENJ. F. GARY,

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest localities in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. The square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a delcterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, Oct. 8, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Election, Thursday, October 18th.

THE SENTINEL.
Clubs! Clubs!! Clubs!!!

The coming events of the next six or twelve months will have an intense interest to every American citizen. North Carolinians have a great stake in the political developments of the country during that period.

The Sentinel will continue to stand by the Constitution as it is, and by the Union of the States, ever advocating principles which lie at the foundation of the Constitution and the Federal government.

It shall continue to be a correct and truthful newspaper, carefully compiling what can be interesting or of utility to the people of North Carolina.

The price of single subscriptions to the Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Sentinel will remain as heretofore, but, in order to extend our circulation, we will hereafter send it to clubs of subscribers at the following rates:

Daily, for three months to clubs of four subs.	$8.00
" for six months to clubs of four sub.	16.00
Semi-Weekly, for three months to clubs of four sub.	4.00
Semi-Weekly, for six months to clubs of four sub.	8.00
Weekly, for three months, to clubs of four sub.	2.00
Weekly, for six months, to clubs of four sub.	4.00

By this arrangement the Daily for six months will cost each member of a club, of four or more subscribers, only $4 each; the Semi-weekly, will cost each member of a club, of four or more subscribers, for six months, only $2 each; and the weekly will cost each member of a club of four or more subscribers, for six months, only $1 each, and half that price for three months. Subscriptions at club rates will not be taken for a longer term than six months. The cash must always accompany the order.

The Constitutional (Howard) Amendment.

We have already discussed this subject perhaps fully as much as our readers desired, but its intense importance demands thorough ventilation, and the developments which are being made in the progress of the canvass will call for further discussion.

The position taken by the Watchman, a popular weekly paper edited by Rev. Dr. Deems in the city of New York, in its last issue, has very strongly excited, in this city and elsewhere, much surprise. That paper, alarmed at the exhibitions of public opinion in the North, has suddenly, as its friends believe, like the New York Herald, turned a somersault, and has come out very decidedly in favor of the adoption of the Howard amendment as "the best we can get. We are forced to admit that the positions of the Watchman, in its last issue, are tantamount to those of the Standard and Mr. Holden, and its views are now similar in their character to those of the New York Herald. It is plain, however, the Watchman is not certain that it is right.

Perhaps, it will sound strangely—to our readers when we affirm, that we are not surprised at the course now taken by our friend, Dr. Deems. We have entire confidence in the integrity of his purposes. What he says, he is always honest in at the time, and we do not for a moment question his warm attachment to the people of the South. He however, thinks quickly, and his warm, generous and impulsive heart, often leads him to jump to conclusions, rather than patiently to investigate and closely to pursue a question or premise through all its ramifications, to its results. Hence in matters of this sort, involving high political or statesman-like views, his is not the class of mind that we can rely upon. The cui bono is the ultimatum to which such minds drive, without closely inspecting or apprehending the dangers to be encountered and the disastrous results which may follow. We prefer, what is right to what seems to be best. If we feel and know we are right, that is the fulcrum for our lever, trusting all else to Him, "who doeth all things well." And it is solely upon this platform, we have based our opposition to the Constitutional (Howard) amendment.

Amid all the agitations and conflict of opinion prior to the war, we never once swerved from those long settled and fixed principles of government, which had been grounded in us by the teachings of the conservative fathers of the Republic and the subsequent elaborations of Henry Clay, of Kentucky. We believed before the war, as we do now, that the organization of the Federal Union under the Constitution of 1787 was founded in right principles and under the eye and approval of Jehovah, whose Providence watches equally over and controls the destiny of nations as of individuals. Hence neither before, nor during, nor since the war, did we assent to the proposition that it was right to attempt to break up that government, until Providence clearly indicated that its full mission had been performed. Others honestly differed with us, and among them Dr. Deems.—They had the right to differ. We never did believe that the time had come. There have been grounds to doubt, to fear, yet we have never had an undoubting conviction that that time had or has come. When the war broke upon us in spite of all our own puny efforts to stay it, and when North Carolina felt bound as a choice of evils to take sides with the South; for the same reason, we committed our destiny with hers as our mother, believing it was "the best we could do," still doubting the right and the necessity and the ultimate safety of the course pursued by those States which inaugurated the movement, and forced North Carolina to go with them. That doubt haunted us through the war, yet having laid our hand to the plough and plighted our faith to the South, we never turned back, hoping that all might be well in the end.

With regard to the Howard amendment, we occupy the same position. That amendment, we hold, is adverse to the government of our fathers, is destructive to the inherent and rightful powers of the States, provides for and looks to a consolidated sovereignty, instead of a government of limited powers, breaks down the wholesome checks of the Constitution and of the State governments, and must inevitably result in universal negro suffrage, not by the free, voluntary consent of the people of the States, but by the future forced action of Congress, and the consequent transfer of the municipal control of the State governments over their internal affairs into the hands of Congress. We believe that this is a wrong,—a wrong which neither Providence indicates nor the results of the war render necessary or proper. We believe it is a great wrong, a wickedness to the people, to the States, and to the Union. So long as we thus regard it, we cannot support it, whatever may be the consequences. If the constitutional majority of the States adopt it, like a good citizen we will religiously accept, and observe, and obey it; but we cannot, by our own vote or support, voluntarily accept what we believe to be a great wrong.

We observe that the right of property in the Watchman has been sold by Dr. Deems to other parties, and that he is no longer proprietor of the paper, but simply its editor. People have a right to do what they will with their own, and it may be the proprietors will not risk their money in a paper which opposes the Howard amendment. If this be the explanation of its present position, of course the people of North Carolina will understand it. More anon.

The Election.

The elections in this State are now but ten days off. It is a source of congratulation that the Gubernatorial canvass is disarmed of the acrimony and bitterness that have heretofore attended such contests in this State. In the present condition of the country, it is eminently desirable that there should be as little of division and strife as possible. The re-election of Gov. Worth, by a vote as nearly approaching unanimity as we hope that his may be, cannot fail to have the happiest effects in every point of view.

That there is to be no opposition and no heated campaign, however, is no merit of the little Radical squad in North Carolina. They have sought zealously to stir up the waters of strife, to array opposition to Gov. Worth, and to raise up a faction in hostility to the President and his policy, and only the good sense, the prudence, or the fears of defeat, of Gen. Dockery, have prevented them from accomplishing these results. Though driven from the field, as an organized party, they will still seek, in every insidious and covert manner, to render Gov. Worth's vote as small as they can,—succeeding in which, they will doubtless seize the fact as an evidence that the people are not, after all, so much opposed to the constitutional amendment, as had been proclaimed, and seek to bring that inference to bear upon the Legislature, when it shall assemble in November. Fore warned, let our voters be fore-armed. Let them all, young and old, go to the polls, as if there was actual opposition in the field, and as though the result of the election depended upon each man's individual vote. Let them roll up such a majority over the secret opposition to Gov. Worth as will indicate their confidence in him and in President Johnson, and as will convey a terrible rebuke to the allies of Radicalism in North Carolina.

At such a time, indifference is criminal.—Every citizen of the State owes it to himself, to his children, and to the cause of Constitutional liberty, to render the voice of North Carolina in this matter clear, loud and resonant. Let it give no doubtful utterance. Let it proclaim, with unmistakable emphasis, that if we are to go down beneath the waves of Radicalism, we will not voluntarily attach to our feet the weights that are to sink and destroy us!

An Admission from an Unexpected Quarter.

Men who are engaged in the advocacy of false and pernicious theories will not unfrequently, by some chance expression or unguarded admission, advance an idea that upsets and subverts all their unfounded and mischievous premises. Thus Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, in his recent speech in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, in the midst of his argument that the States of the South are out of the Union, are but conquered territory, and while advocating the most stringent rules for their government, strangely lets fall the declaration that "whoever is governed by the laws has a right to make them." This is precisely the principle upon which President Johnson's policy is based—this is all that the South insists upon in its relations to the Federal government. But the Radical policy is directly opposed to this correct and clear assumption. The people of the South are heavily taxed without having the slightest voice in the imposition of those taxes. Amendments to the Constitution, as alleged prerequisites to restoration, are forced upon them for rejection or acceptance, in the preparation of which they had no part.—And in every particular that can be specified, while denied all the privileges and immunities of government, they are subjected to all the burdens and penalties that the caprice or prejudice of a body, in which they have no representation, can impose.

The above dozen words:—"whoever is governed by the laws has a right to make them"—are a complete refutation of everything else that is elsewhere advanced in the four columns of invective and passion that were uttered by Stevens on the occasion referred to. They are an incontrovertable answer, based, as they are, upon the immutable principles of right and justice, to the whole Radical programme of taxation without restoration, and of exclusion from the benefits of Union, while subject to all the burdens of partial and vindictive legislation.

New York Papers.

The New York Herald, one of the most unreliable and mischievous papers in the country, has always had a circulation in the South far beyond its merits, simply on account of its news matter. It contributed vastly to bring on the war and to keep it up, and now it hypocritically urges the South to adopt the Howard amendment, as the best means of early restoration. Our people in the South should abandon it altogether.

The New York News, while under the control of Hon. Ben. Wood, was violently Southern.—It was not a favorite with us then, because of its violence and imprudence. Under its present management it has no claims upon the support of Southern people.

The New York World we regard as the most able and reliable Democratic journal which supports President Johnson's policy in that city.—It is the organ of the Northern Democracy, and its character as a newspaper is equal to that of the Herald. It merits the warmest support of Southern men.

So also the New York Express, edited by the Brookses, an old Henry Clay Whig paper and one of the most Conservative journals of the country, and the Journal of Commerce, claim strongly the support of the South.

Let the South support its own papers first; then give encouragement to such papers as the New York World, Express and Journal of Commerce, or the Baltimore Gazette and Sun, or the National Intelligencer, of Washington City.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I am looking for a man. This was the language of an ancient philosopher whose name I have forgotten, while seen traversing the streets of Athens, at mid-day, with a lighted lamp in his hand. If ever there was a time when such an individual could be found, now is that time, for a dark and almost impenetrable cloud seems almost to overshadow the once prosperous and "sunny South." Yes, the present distressed and prostrate condition of the South, and of North Carolina in particular, eminently calls for such.

In the Presidential chair we have the man for the times; one who, Curtius like, is willing to throw himself into the breach to save his country; and what we now require is that North Carolina should elect a Governor and Legislative body to "hold up his hands," for he needs them sustained; for he has to contend against an infinitely worse people than the Amalekites, who, you know, were actuated solely by plunder. Plunder, too, that is "the spoils," is the distinguishing trait of the party against whom the President and the South have to contend. But superadded thereto, they seem to be the most vindictive and malicious faction in the world; for let but a man whom they have deserted not follow them, and he becomes, in the language of "Billy Holden," "disloyal," an arrant "traitor," &c. I have been led to these remarks by the course of the Senior Editor of the Standard, and the proceedings of the multitudinous mass meeting, over which he recently presided, which, to all intents and purposes, was a great failure, and is looked upon in the country as a political farce, and all its attendants as political humbug.

They have endorsed the "Howard amendment," which politically seals their fate, and although, in the main, it is a waste of ammunition to let off a 32 pounder at a "skunk," yet you should give them "a little more grape," so as to leave nothing but the freedman's "odor" that now exudes through their every pore. You should lose no time in publishing entire the "Howard amendment," and keep it before the people, for most of the masses are ignorant of it and desire to see and hear it read for themselves.

You need have no fears about the success of our old quaker Governor, for, if I am not greatly mistaken, he will beat General Dockery 40,000 votes. Governor Worth was not my first choice; yet I have watched and approve his course, and think that he is the very man who is called upon to hold up "Moses'," the President's, hands.

As a Democrat I shall support him, and I call upon the entire Democracy to put down the opponents of President Johnson, who are the "Amalekites" of the present day. As to the State-rights Whigs, no appeal to them is necessary. "CAPE FEAR."

October 4, 1866.

Political Excitement in Pennsylvania.

(Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5, 1866.

This city is, to-night, in a ferment of political agitation. Both parties are striving hard for victory at the polls next Tuesday. The republicans have organized open-air mass meetings in front of the Union League House and all up and down Broad street, at which scores of prominent orators of their party are advertised to speak. Besides that, they are to have a grand demonstration at the Academy of Music, with Horace Greeley as the chief orator.—Torchlight processions on a magnificent scale also enter into their arrangements.

The Democrats, on the other hand, are to have an open air mass meeting, at which their candidate for Governor, Heister Clymer, is to speak. You see nothing in the newspapers but politics. Flaming announcements as to the great issue before the people are posted all over the city. The Republicans declare that "The day that decides the future is at hand;" that "The crisis is upon us;" that "The second Tuesday of October will settle the destiny of the nation;" that the vital issue is, "Shall liberty be lost, and the sway of a dictator begin? or shall the republic be saved, and the right of the majority to rule be perpetuated?" The Democrats, on their side, call for the support of "All who believe that this is a white man's government, made by white men, and who are opposed to negro equality and negro suffrage." They call upon soldiers and sailors to come out in their might and follow the example of their glorious commander, the heroic Grant, and let the enemies of their country see that they fought to preserve the Union, and not to destroy it. They announce that the Republican programme, freely rendered, means "Extra pay for each white soldier $50; for each negro soldier $300; for good clothing and schooling of negroes $7,000,000; for the families of white soldiers nary cent," and so on. Then there is quite a tempest in a teapot over the dismissal from the Soldiers' Home, in this City, of eighteen maimed soldiers, who assert under oath, that they were turned out because they were Democrats, while counter affidavits are numerous that no political tests have been applied, and that they were dismissed for drunkeness and general misconduct. From all of which you may derive the conclusion that the science of politics is grand, but that it occasionally degenerates into a very small and contemptible business.

LETTER FROM HON. W. L. SHARKEY OF MISSISSIPPI.

He Opposes the Constitutional Amendment.

The Hon. W. L. Sharkey, United States Senator elect from Mississippi, writes from Washington, September 17th, 1866, to Gov. Humphreys, of that State, advising the Legislature to assemble on the 15th to reject the Howard amendment. He says:

I do not believe the amendment was recommended by two-thirds of the Congress of the United States. The constitutional House of Representatives consists of members chosen "by the people of the several States," and the Senate consists of two Senators from each State.—It is very clear that a body not so composed, or, in other words, where a considerable number of the States are excluded from representation in both branches, is not the Congress of the United States. As well might any body of usurpers assemble and claim to be the Congress of the United States. Each State has a right to know that all claiming to be members possess the constitutional requisites. Mississippi does not know and cannot know that the members who recommended this amendment were constitutional members of Congress. Nearly one-third of the States were excluded from representation in both houses by a majority of members who assumed to be the Congress. If a majority may thus exclude States from representation, it is easy to perceive that it may go on in the work of declaring States disloyal and in the exclusion of minorities, until Congress shall be made to consist only of members from a few of the larger States, with all others excluded. For instance, New York and Pennsylvania may so manage as to control a majority, and begin by excluding first one small State and then another and so on, until the legislative power of the nation is usurped and controlled by those two States, and ultimately even by the largest of them.

When the Southern States adopted the amendment abolishing slavery, the state of things was very different; they had not elected or sent members to the Congress which recommended that amendment. But when this amendment was proposed, they had elected members who appeared at the proper time and demanded to be admitted, but were rejected. We are not therefore to be told that we have recognized this as a Constitutional Congress.

But again: The President is a component part of the Legislative Department, and the Constitution declares that "every order, resolution or vote to which the concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary, (except on a question of adjournment,) shall be presented to the President," etc. Nothing can take effect, or be complete until so presented. And the case is not altered because a two-third vote is required on amendments proposed; such a resolution is not a complete legislative act until so presented. In no other way, except through the President, can such resolution be communicated to the States. As the proposed amendment was not submitted to the President, it does not amount to a recommendation. It is a nullity.

But let us look for a moment at the provisions of the proposed amendment.

The first section declares that "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the State wherein they reside." It then proceeds to prohibit the States from making or enforcing any law "which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens." It does not say what are privileges or immunities; that is left for the next Congress to provide in virtue of the last section, which declares that "Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article." We may find Congress "conferring privileges and immunities" on one class to the exclusion of another class; or we may find Congress assuming absolute control over all the people of a State and their domestic concerns, and this virtually abolishes the State. Perhaps any State that has so little self-respect as to adopt the amendment, deserves no better fate.

The second section, if my construction of it be right, would probably exclude one State from representation in Congress, as I suppose the number of male negroes over twenty-one to be nearly equal to the number of white males.

It is, therefore, a mere effort to force negro suffrage upon us, whether we are willing or not. Either do this or you shall have no representation. It is presumed that our intelligent people would not hesitate long in making their choice.

The third section provides that no person shall hold any office who may have heretofore taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and who afterward engaged in the rebellion, or who gave aid and comfort to those who did engage in it. This is a sweeping act of disfranchisement, which would embrace, perhaps, a majority of our citizens; for there are probably few who have not, in some way or other, taken an oath to support the Constitution.

Even those who opposed secession, and engaged in the war only under compulsion, would be embraced by this provision, as well as the man who had given to a hungry soldier a meal's victuals, or a peice of bread; and also all those who, in charity, had given an article of clothing to a suffering friend or relative in the army. Such a provision would be so contrary to the theory of our Government, and so oppressive toward a very large class of the Southern States, that it cannot be supposed that those who proposed it could have entertained a hope that it would be accepted. They ought to have known, too, that such a provision was calculated to endanger the existence of the Government, as revolutions may always be expected, sooner or later, from acts which disfranchise the enfranchised class. If the people cannot exclude unworthy or undeserving men from the office by the instrumentality of the ballot-box, then they are unfit for self-government, and the sooner they abandon the experiment the better.

I need say nothing for the fourth section, but the fifth is the Trojan horse abounding in mischief. It provides that "Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article," which may be construed to authorize Congress to do whatever it may desire to do. Under this same provision, attached to the emancipation amendment, you have the Civil Rights bill and the Freedman's Bureau bill. It was construed in the Senate, just as I admonished many members of the Legislature it would be, to authorize these odious measures. We should profit by the experience it has furnished us."

Repudiation in Georgia.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 5.—Considerable feeling is exhibited throughout Georgia just now on the subject of repudiation. It is thought that an effort will be made, at the meeting of the Legislature in November, to relieve the people from payment of certain debts contracted during and prior to the late war. The pleas urged for repudiation are the loss of slaves and the failure of the crops. The amount of property returned in the State for 1866 is $207,000,000; in 1860 $630,332,777; loss to State over $413,000,000.

PUBLIC SALE.

ON Friday, the 19th. October, we will sell to the highest bidder, on the premises, the one mile south of Ridgeway, on R. & G. R. R. in Warren county, the residence of the late Dr. H. L. Plummer.

PLANTATION,

The tract will be divided—one, including houses, contains 600 acres, well adapted to the growth of wheat, tobacco, corn &c., with an adequate quantity of wood land, original growth, and a larger proportion of highly improved lot land than any other farm in the county. Also, a fair proportion of bottom land on a creek, running entirely through the tract.

THE DWELLING

is a good two-story house, with 7 rooms; good cabins, with stone chimneys; excellent frame barns, good granary, stables, &c. Also, a good Orchard of Choice Winter Fruit.

The other tract, on the same road, contains 350 acres, 50 of which is good bottom land, on Fishing Creek, and sufficient wood for fences and fuel, but no house except a barn. Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.

The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

We Will Also Sell

12 head fat Cattle, 20 head Sheep, 50 barrels old Corn, a good Wheat Thrasher, capable of getting out 200 bushels Wheat per day;

Two Wheat Reapers,

SOME EXCELLENT SEED WHEAT, AND OTHER ARTICLES.

TERMS—For land, one-fifth cash; the balance in equal payments of 1 and 2 years, bonds well secured, with interest from date—title held until land is paid for. Other property, cash. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

FOR SALE.

ONE THOUSAND ACRES of valuable land, lying on Neuse River, in the County of Johnson, and on both sides of the N. C. R. Road, between Smithfield and Stallings' Depots.

I prefer selling the whole tract to one man, but will cut it into hundred acre tracts to suit purchasers. To a company of men wishing small farms and pleasant healthy locations, it holds out good inducements, as I will sell on favourable terms. Persons wishing to examine the land, and coming by Rail Road, can be put off the Cars at Vinson's Mill, where they will always find me.

I will also sell a TWENTY HORSE power SAW MILL, in good working order, with teams, waggons, and all appurtenances.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Oct. 8, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Rosenbaum is again on hand with a fine assortment of ready made clothing, furs, winter wrappings, notions, fancy and dry goods, etc.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. announce a new stlye of winter boot for gentlemen.

See Court advertisement from the County of Moore.

SUPERIOR COURT.—This tribunal holds over and is still engaged in the trial of James and Rufus Hodge for the alleged murder of Sturdivant. It will adjourn as soon as the case is disposed of, which will probably be to-night, and Judge Merrimon will then proceed to Franklin to hold Court there.

The argument in the case was commenced by Mr. W. S. Mason, for the State, on Saturday afternoon. He was followed in a learned effort by Mr. Moore, for the defence, who was succeeded by Mr. Bragg in a speech of great power for the prosecution. Mr. Bragg spoke from 9 until past 12 o'clock at night.

This morning, R. H. Battle, Jr. addressed the jury for the defence in an effort which we hear very highly spoken of, and, at the hour of going to press, Mr. Phillips was speaking on the same side. Col. E. G. Haywood will conclude for the State, when the case will be given to the jury.

Charles Johnson, convicted of highway robbery, was sentenced to be hung sometime in November, but his counsel prayed and obtained an appeal to the Supreme Court.

DISPATCH.—We are indebted to the Southern Express Company for late Savannah papers, and for Mobile papers of as late date as the 5th.—This is quick work.

THE NEW DEPARTMENT COMMANDER.—It always affords us pleasure to bestow credit where it is due. We are gratified to be able to state that Col. Bumford, the new Commandant, whose headquarters are in this city, is universally spoken of in the most favorable terms. One of his first official acts has been to direct the prompt surrender of all private property, which, under his predecessors, has been both used and much abused by the military. His whole intercourse with our citizens is said to be marked with great amenity and courtesy.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, October 6th and 7th.—R. E. Morecock, R. & G. R. R.; Dr. J. P. Babcock, City; Gen. G. W. Lewis, Wake Forest; E. R. Dorsett, Trinity College; Capt. W. S. Ashe, Chapel Hill; Mrs. Alston, Pittsboro'; A. F. Lord, W. H. Overman, Mrs. Overman, Mrs. Brown, Salisbury; R. H. Mathews, N. Y.; Thos. B. Woodward, Baltimore.

"THE LAST NINETY DAYS."—Dr. Deems states, in the Watchman, that the "Last Ninety Days of the War in North Carolina" is going through the press rapidly, and he hopes, in the course of a fortnight, to be able to fill all orders. Much of the book is re-written, and the new chapters furnished by the talented authoress, in which the history and horrors of Sherman's raid are depicted, are pronounced absolutely thrilling. The price of the volume is $1.50 by mail, pre-paid.

GOLDSBORO'.—Dr. Chas. F. Dewey, formerly of Goldsboro', and a son of Chas. Dewey, Esq., Cashier of the Bank of North Carolina in this city, has entered into the Commission business in Wilmington.

A considerable religious interest is manifested in the Baptist Church, in Goldsboro'. The News says that the Revs. J. B. and Joel Hardwick, assisted by Rev. C. J. Nelson, are laboring zealously in the good work.

LONGEVITY.—The Newbern Times says that five aged persons died in Craven County in one day, last week, whose aggregate ages footed up 355 years.

WILTED.—During the election campaign in New York, last fall, the following amusing incident occurred at a political meeting, much to the discomfiture of a spread-eagle orator. He spoke, with earnest gesticulation, as follows:

"Mr. President and fellow-citizens,—I would that on the morning of the 7th of November next I had the wings of a bird; I would fly to every county, to every town—aye, to every village and every hamlet—in this broad land, and proclaim to every man, woman, and child the success of the party."

At this point a small boy in the crowd cried out, "Dry up, you old fool; you'd get shot for a goose before you flew a mile."

The stump speaker wilted, and small boy took the floor.

A NIGHT MARE.—Daniel Dougherty is a pet orator of the Philadelphia radicals. In the course of a speech on Monday night he delivered the following prophecy:—

"Aye, a bloodier vision rushes red upon my sight! If we fail in the approaching elections, and our Northern opponents gain sufficient to form with the South a majority, the traitors who have access to the President will goad him on to make good the threat to recognize the Representatives and Senators of the Southern States, with their Northern allies, as the Congress of the United States. This will be the signal of a war, not alone in the capital, but in every Northern city, house with house and friend with friend, ending with anarchy and massacre."

A small meanness has been developed by some of the trustees of the Antietam National Cemetery, who urged that a rock known as Lee's Rock, and memorable for having been the post of the Confederate General throughout the fight, should be removed, inasmuch as its retention was tantamount to erecting a monument to General Lee! Subsequently a better spirit prevailed, and the same party decreed its safety as a "feature of historic interest."

RADICAL WIT.—The following, from the Dubuque (Iowa) Times, is the best hit yet: Diminutive applications are appropriate for children, but are out of place for adults. "Bennie" sounds pretty for a little urchin, but when he becomes a man we give him the full cognomen of "Benjamin." So in the early stages of the great rebellion we called the rebels "Johnnies"—now we call them "Johnson men."

Peace or War.

[From the New York Journal of Commerce, Sept. 28]

Have we fought for these long years, poured out blood, and expended treasure without stint, for the sake of perpetuating the military reign of North over South? Was it to destroy self governmentand overthrow the foundations of the Union that the war was carried on? So the Radicals would have us believe. Neither before the war, nor during the war, nor since the war, has there been a time when the Northern States had any right to prescribe civil law in the Southern States; nor can it be done now without destroying the whole fabric of the American Union. What business have we with Southern local law to-day? "We have conquered them," says a radical, "and therefore we have a right to prescribe what social laws we please."—Nonsense! We have conquered ourselves. We have suppressed an insurrection in our own body politic. We have extirpated a disease which took possession of one of our own organs of life. We shouted until we were hoarse that the war was "for the life of the nation." Let us have done with this sectionalism, then, and remember that the United States form one grand body to which each part is necessary, and in which each part has equal rights. The administering of local law to the South, as a conquered territory, implies a right in the majority of the States to make laws for the minority. So long as military law was administered there was no such impl c tion, but this business of prescribing civil and social law is like poisoning one's own arm with the idea that the poison can be confined to that locality. The veins and arteries run through the whole system. The wrong is done to the whole constitution by an outrage on one part of the body, and the whole body will suffer for the wrong. We have no right, either by law or conquest, nor on moral principles, to treat the Southern States as conquered territories and populations. We may administer the law to individuals as severely as we please. We may punish men and women and children. But the United States Government might as well repeal the charters of New Orleans, Mobile and Charleston, and wipe them out as cities in the South, as to declare a Southern State dead or not a member of the Union. The moral right, the legal right, the constitutional right, is just the same in both cases.

"But," says a sincere Radical, "have we not the right to refuse them admission to the Union unless they adopt such laws and social principles as we think correct!" No, you have no such right under the Constitution and laws of our land, nor have you the moral right unless you give them at the same time the right of accepting or rejecting your terms of Union. The grand wrong, the outrage to American principles, the rotted timber which men are now engaged in forcing into the Constitution itself, is this plan of holding a State by the throat and declaring that it shall not come into your Union, not be protected by your Constitution, unless it will agree with you to alter that Constitution and submit to amendments of your proposing; but when the State asks, "Will you let me stay out of your Union if I don't like your new proposals?" the answer is a fierce "No." This is a hideous burlesque on the old idea of a free American Union. The vanity of a Union thus constructed is but too plain. It has not the consistency of a summer morning cloud. It will not have strength to endure through a generation of politicians. It can only be a perpetual civil war. Was it for this we fought?

The Press of North Carolina.

The majority of the newspapers of North Carolina, to judge from every appearance, are in a very languishing condition. It is no fault of the conductors of the many excellent journals in the State, that they are not better supported.—The fault rests with the people themselves, and it is a lasting shame and an evidence of a most deplorable want of energy and public spirit among our people, that in many localities Northern papers circulate to a greater extent than our own papers published here at home.

The press of North Carolina has never ranked with that of Virginia or any of her sister States. The reason is apparent. They are not supported. The expense attending the publication of a first class newspaper is by no means trifling, and a subscription list of only a few hundred, with a moderate share of advertising patronage, will not sustain the poorest paper in existence. Yet men complain of the character of our papers as compared with those abroad, and assign as a reason for withholding their patronage, the inferiority of such journals. We are tired of this thing. We are tired of seeing a circulation accorded to Northern publications that is not given to the leading papers of North Carolina.

With due respect to the merits of all the papers in the State, we may justly rate the Raleigh Sentinel and Wilmington Journal as our leading political journals, and we undertake to say, that neither one of these has a circulation out of the respective cities in which they are published, at all equal to that of some papers published outside the limits of the State. Yet when the merits of each are considered, we question if the Journal and Sentinel have a superior.

Our prosperity as a people, the enunciation of every correct principle of State policy, the revival of the cause of education, with every other institution in which the public is interested, depend solely on the press of the State, but it is difficult to convince the people of this fact. Can it be that our people are so much more ignorant than those of other States? This spirit of apathy must proceed directly from ignorance, or we would find it existing in communities noted for their refinement and intelligence.—Even the people of the North are our superiors in this respect. In the agricultural districts there, not one in ten can be found who does not read his morning paper. In North Carolina not one man in a hundred ever opens a newspaper, and taking the entire population of the State, not more than one newspaper is read to every thousand. These figures evince an amount of ignorance on the part of the people at large, of which any North Carolinian ought to be ashamed.—Wilson Carolinian.

INTERESTING FROM LIBERIA.—Rev. H. W. Ershine, colored, of Liberia, repeated his lecture on the "Condition, Prospects, Climate, and Productions of Liberia," at Dudley Hall, last night, to an audience of about 100 persons, two-thirds of whom was white. As on the previous night, the lecture was listened to with unflagging interest from the commencement to the close, and produced a most favorable impression upon those present. The glowing colors in which the lecturer depicted the country of his adoption enlisted the deepest interest of the colored portion of his auditory, and caused them to be convicted that Liberia was the land, for them. —Lynchburg News, 5th.

It transpires that Butler gets $250 per diem from the Central Committee during his stumping tour. This sum, in addition to trifles that fall in his way and are easily secreted, keeps the Doctor quite cheerful and comfortable.—N. Y. World.

General Grant's pay is $18,678 per year and Lieutenant General Sherman's $13,518. Each allowed fifty horses. A Major General gets $5,800 per year, and is allowed five horses. The pay of a Brigadier is $3,940,50.

Our Monday Morning Dispatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6, P. M.

Flint, who is charged with absconding from Norfolk, in a letter from Chicago, Illinois, to the New York Herald, says he is no forger, and has not decamped with another man's wife, or deserted his own, but that he made over to his creditors all the necessary funds to pay his debts.

Mr. G. B. Lamar, of Savannah, Ga., is here urging his claims to a large amount of cotton seized by the Government. His object appears to be to secure Executive or Departmental action in his favor, thus keeping it out of the Court of Claims, before which tribunal the first step in the proceedings would require an oath that he had never participated in the late rebellion.

The President, to-day, directed a pardon to be issued to Edward L. Martin, of Delaware, who was convicted in April, 1864, in the United States District Court, for the District of Delaware, of aiding and assisting the rebellion, and sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 and the costs of the prosecution, all of his slaves to be liberated, and that he be disqualified from holding any office under the United States. Martin has paid the fine and costs, and his pardon is recommended by many of the most prominent citizens of Delaware.

Action of the Government regarding the search of the Steamer Congress by the British Gunboat "Rescue."

OTTOWA, Oct. 6, P. M.

The government has been inquiring into the recent search of the steamer Congress under United States colors, by the British gunboat Rescue. The American government has demanded an apology of the British Consul at Buffalo, who informed the government that the Congress was a Fenian vessel, and had been armed to attack the shipping of the towns on Lake Erie.

The Political Excitement in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.

The mob spirit prevails here and political excitement is higher than for many years.

On Tuesday night, three Democratic Headquarters were gutted by Radical rowdies.—Last night, there were riotous proceedings in different parts of the City and several persons were shot.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.

Commissioner Conley, of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, publishes a letter resigning his position. His successor, Col. Louis M. Bogy, of St. Louis, had previously been appointed.

Col. Kelly and Capt. McCafferty, on Saturday, presented resolutions of a late meeting of U. S. soldiers in New York, which declared that the honor and dignity of this country in our foreign relations were compromised by the action of Minister Adams and several Consuls respecting the Fenian movement. The President referred them to Secretary Seward. One of the delegates said they had no confidence in Seward and it was useless to see him. The interview was mutually unsatisfactory.

Secretary Seward is much improved in health.

Great Fire in New York—Feniana.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.

The establishment of Voght & Co., Porcelain dealers, on Crosby street, was destroyed by fire last night. Loss over $200,000. The fire communicated to St. Patrick's church, the Catholic Cathedral, which was also destroyed. Several valuable pictures were saved, but others and the organ were lost. Loss $150,000. The Cathedral was built in 1811.

It is stated that Jno. Mitchell writes from Paris, declining to have any further connection with James Stephens and his Fenian movements.

It is said that Stephens has chartered a large steamer lately for trans-Atlantic operations.

WHO CAN TELL

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

TRUNKS,
TRAVELING BAGS, &c. &c.

I board no one in New York or elsewhere to buy goods for me. I buy for myself and all I ask of my friends in the City, County or State, at large, is to give me a call and my Goods will be advertised more effectually than can be done through newspapers, or hand bills. For me to say.

COME TO COOKE'S

where you can be served cheaper than any where else, is all gammon. It is mere stuff. Come and examine my goods. If the prices don't suit, don't buy.

To the public, who patronized me in days gone by, I return my grateful acknowledgments and hope to act in future so as to merit your favour.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative notes, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegiate Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise,

LARGE

Opening of New Fall Goods,

With an extensive assortment of CARPETS, RUGS, DRUGGETTS AND GENERAL HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, and an entirely new stock of the handsomest DRESS GOODS the market affords.

Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Eugenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanelia, richly embroidered—an entirely new things, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds; "Transconia A'Soie, effective Carcaux, with rich Broches," "Lornetio, effective Satin Carreatux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, prime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.

A magnificent assortment of

SQUARE & LONG SHAWLS

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 30c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

GENUINE IRISH LINENS,

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.

I would say to those in want of

that the greatest care has been taken in the selection of the best colors and finest fabrics, and they have but to be seen to be appreciated, so that those in want had better

JAS. L. HATHAWAY AND UTLEY

(Formerly HATHAWAY & Co., Importers of MOLASSES and SUGAR, Wilmington, N. C.)

Shipping and Commission Merchants,

171 PEARL STREET, NEW YORK.

We solicit consignments of Cotton, Naval Stores, Sheetings, Yarns, Tobacco, and other Southern Products, to the sale of which our prompt personal attention will be given. We will make liberal advances upon receipt of Invoice and Bill of Lading. All Merchandise and Produce shipped to us for sale are insured from point of shipment, with or without advice. Invoices should always accompany each shipment.

Both of us having had over twenty years' experience in business in the South, and our J. L. HATHAWAY three years in New York, we feel confident we can secure full prices for our friends who will favor us with their consignments.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

NOTIONS,

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market. M'ILWAINE & CO.
